

Autobiography

My name is Sarah Kim. I was born at 9th of February in Seoul, Korea. Seoul is a capital city in Korea and there are lots of people living in Seoul so we had to live in highrise apartments.

My parents decided to come to New Zealand because there was my uncle, aunt and cousin living in New Zealand and they invited us. Also before we came to New Zealand my brother was living here in Auckland with them. Then me and my Dad came to New Zealand to get my brother to come back to Korea. We went to South Island and other places. When we went back to Korea. Me, Dad and my brother really enjoyed staying at New Zealand and my Dad thought it was good for me and my brother to learn and live here so we decided to come to New Zealand to stay.

First my life at New Zealand was hard especially because of having to learn English and because my Dad was staying in Korea. He was going to come to New Zealand after a few months because of his work. First when I came to this school for only a visit I was so shy I could barely say hi to my teacher. But after a few months it started to get better. I really liked how there are more trees and plants than Korea and because of that now I like planting seeds and looking after them.

Practically my life in New Zealand is happy. I really like this school, the teachers and my friends. I am very happy to have more time to play outside and also with nature than I had at Korea.
